

ABN-AMRO Bank World Headquarters

Project Overview

This headquarters complex, designed as the head office of one of the world's leading banks, includes an innovative double-skin curtain wall, automated blinds, heat recovery system, modern digital climate regulators and lighting controls, and a radiant cooling ceiling. The complex includes two office towers and a courtyard building with large assembly spaces.

Location:

Amsterdam
Netherlands

Project Owner:

ABN-AMRO Bank

Submitting Architect:

Pei Cobb Freed & Partners Architects LLP

Source URL: <http://wp.aiatopten.org/node/529>